ANSWER1.Ans: B*Explanation:

The correct sentence is: The bipartisan agreement to suspend the debt ceiling for two years, which passed the Senate on Thursday, effectively sets overall discretionary spending levels over that period.

2.Ans: BExplanation:

The correct sentence is: They rebuffed Mr. Biden's pitch to raise trillions of dollars from new taxes on corporations and high earners, and both sides wound up agreeing to cut funding for the Internal Revenue Service that was expected to bring in more money by cracking down on tax cheats.

3.Ans: DExplanation:

The correct sentence is: The Move Forward's promises helped the fledgling party easily connect with a public which was increasingly angered by Prime Minister Prayut Chan-o-cha's authoritarianism and the drying up of economic opportunities.

4.Ans: AExplanation:

The correct sentence is: They are emblematic of the government's policies toward women, which have effectively erased them from public life.

5.Ans: D

Explanation:

The correct sentence is: Some Syrian refugees are afraid they will be pressured to return home now that the fighting there has lessened and President Bashar al-Assad is emerging from diplomatic isolation.

6.Ans: CExplanation:

The correct sentence is: Failure or a lack of major progress could complicate Ukraine's path forward and lead some Western officials to question the war strategy.

7.Ans: EExplanation:

The correct sentence is: The rail accident in Balasore in Odisha on June 2, involving the collision of three trains, is a tragic reminder of the challenges that India faces in modernising and expanding its rail services.

8.Ans: DExplanation:

The correct sentence is: That rush to buy water is likely to rattle the real estate market in Arizona, making homes more expensive and threatening the relatively low housing costs that had made the region a magnet for people from across the country.

9.Ans: BExplanation:

The correct sentence is: The new restrictions would be felt hardest and most immediately in small towns and unincorporated swaths of desert along the fringes of the Phoenix metro area — where most lower-cost homes tend to get built.

10.Ans: E

Explanation:

The correct sentence is: Footage of Paora being petted by zoo visitors under fluorescent lights has caused an outcry in New Zealand, where it is common knowledge that the national bird is nocturnal and should not be handled other than by experts.
